Respectfully. COURTLAND H. SMITH, Mayor. THE NIGHT BEFORE THE ELECTION. -The canvass in this city closed last night by a grand terch light procession and political meeting athe part of the randing a meera is party. Long before the hour for the price select to form the streets were crowded with people, and many of the rovidances were brilliantly illuminated. At half pist seven o'clock the presssion, headed by the Alexandria Music I Association, proeceded to the ctermbeat wharf, where it wis joited by several clubs from Washington. It then moved through the priceipal streets to the following order: Alexandria Musical Association, Bacheler's Club, 30 men, in black suits and si k ba's, Geo. A. Mushbach Presidect and A. T. Ramsay Captaic; Chief Mar-shal Wm. H. Smith, and R. C. Lee, Goorge Daffey, Orlando Wood, W. H. Therntor, A N. Hurole, E. H. Hawkits, M. J. Watermar; Central Hancock and English Club, Capries E. Singre President and M. B. Harlow seere tery; J. cisen Decogratic Association of Wash Mulien, Octonel Moses and Dr. Allen marshalt; Virginia Democratic Association of Washing. ion, J. T. Caldwell President; Young Mon's National Association of Washington, Campbell Carrington President; Webber's fuil bacd; Democratio Rereacjaster Club, J. W. Shinn President and E. L. Breckett, J. E. Waddey Cub, J. W. Burke President and J. E. Norris Dean K. Kemper President, J. R. Prooter and Frank Price marshal ; Prof. Clarkson's Cornet Band; Third Ward Cinb, John Sullivan and P. Haves Vice Presidents, and James Brancon marsha'; Fourth Ward Club, Colonel L W. R id President, James H. Neale and William Breen marshals. All along the route of proession, fined with flage and Chinese lanterns, fr works of every description were displayed, sed the scene presented was a magnificent one. At the grand stand, on the corner of King and West ington streets, which was splendidly docorated, and where a large corcourse of people had assembled. An epthusias io meeting was hild, presided over by S. Chapman Nesle, org., Sho in a short, characteristic sperch, coogta:u lated the people on the magnificient display they had made. Short, ofe ring, elequent probes were then made by Judge Charles B. Bill, of Loudeun, Col. Was. S. Gilmer, of Rehmond; (x member of Coogress Themas Whicherd of Lyechtury; J. A. Buchanso, eq. ef Baltimore; B. Johason Barbaur, eig ti Orange; Gen. Fi zhogh Lao, of Stafford; E C Carriegton, of Washington, and Com mon sen'th's Altercey S. G. Breat, of this city.

respectable speech. Edmund Barke beieg again hully called for that gentleman came forward and made a rousing specch for Major Bayly. At the conclusion of his remarks, he distributed to the crowd Bayly tickets, and urged all to vote them

Capt. Chapman made his first appearance as a political speaker, and said that no orders from the heads of departments or congressional committees could make him vote for Mejor Bayly. This sentiment caused great confusion, and the meeticg, amid bisses and cries for Bigli, broke up.

An enthusiast o meeting of the democratio voters of Alexandria county was held last night at the Hancock, English and Barbour o'ub rooms, in Arlington township, at which speeches were made by A. P. Douglas and James E Clements urging all to do their duty as men to-day. The meeting then adjourned with three cheers for Haucick, English and John S. Barbour.

THE ELECTION TO DAY - Nothing has been hought about or taked about to day but the led jor, which has been progressing quietly but opergetically since suprise this morning, and it is thought that the full vote of every ward in the city will be polled. Early this morning the judges in the 31 ward refused to recog nize the receipts issued by the collector of de iquent tex's recently appointed by Auditor Massey, and the matter was brought to the attention of Judge Chilton, who gave it as his opicion that the receipts alluded to ought to be recognized, which settled the question, and the votes of those holding them were received. The judges in the 1st ward refused to receive the votes of those who could not produce a tax receipt, notwithstanding Treasurer Harlow had furnished the judges with a certified list of those who had paid their texes. This question was also settled by Judge Chilton, who gave it as his opinion that the certified lasts in the several wards were correct guides. A large number of strangers have been in the city and rach trip of the ferry beats added white and nearo men to the crowd. As a consequence a great many votes have been challenged, and a good deal of time lest. In the 3rd ward the vote of Rev. Dr. Bullock was challenged, but it was decided almost immediately that he was a prominent citizens were challenged during the day in the several wards. Of course nothing definte can be stated, but there is no doubt but that Alexandeis wil roll uo a bandsome maricy for Mr. Barbour. The o lored republicuesare voting for Maj Bayly almost to a mar, Gen. Williams, the Mahone candidate is hard'y thought of, and the precision is made that the ant, F. A. Reed, Thomas Perry, G. Mc. Mato ics wil not poll a hundred votes in the
